

Kelowna posted May 7, 2015 by Lauren Hjalmanson

Valley Mayors Join Okanagan Water Board to Make Water Work

Mayors from across the Okanagan gathered together at Bylands Nursery in West Kelowna on Thursday, May 7, to challenge the members of their respective communities to Make Water Work this summer. As a part of this year's water conservation campaign, a collection of xeriscape plants has been made available to Okanagan residents at local garden centres.

Make Water Work 2015

Video link: https://www.kelownanow.com/watercooler/news/news/Kelowna/15/05/07/Valley_Mayors_Join_Okanagan_Water_Board_to_Make_Water_Work/